

FAQ'S

How long is the session?

- Simple sessions have a duration of 30 minutes.
- The double sessions have a duration of 60 minutes.

How should I go dressed to my session?

- Two piece swimsuit or sportswear.

Can I exercise before and / or after Human Sculptore?

- It is important that you are exercising so you can get better results.

Is it advisable to make Human Sculptore, accompanied by a diet?

- It is important that you lead a healthy lifestyle in your food and that you have an adequate diet for even better results.

How old must I be to do the Human Sculptore method?

- From 18 to 65 years.

Is Human Sculptore a treatment?

- Do not.

Is Human Sculptore a medical and / or Aesthetic method?

- Do not.

Can I do the Human Sculptore method if I performed laser hair removal recently?

- Yes, 24 hours after your laser hair removal.

Can I apply creams, gels or ointments before my session?

- Assist with clean skin creams, gels or ointments.

Can I do the Human Sculptore method if I am pregnant?

- Do not.

Can I do the Human Sculptore method if I have metal elements such as: plates, screws, nails, clips, prostheses or metal discs?

- You must notify the specialist and / or representative of Human Sculptore for evaluation.

Can I do the Human Sculptore method if I have a pacemaker?

- Do not

Can I do the Human Sculptore method if I have a Baipás or gastric tube?

- Do not.

Can I do the Human Sculptore method if I have a stomach stapling?

- Do not.

Can I do the method if I have heart problems?

- Do not.

Can I do the Human Sculptore method after surgery such as: tummy tuck, lipotransference, lipectomy, liposuction, 4d lipo, or some similar surgery.

- Yes, you must wait a period of 45 days from discharge to start with Human Sculptore.

Can I combine the Human Sculptore method with others such as: cavitation, mesotherapy, carboxytherapy, pressotherapy, R-ICE, cryofrequency, radiofrequency, Venus Legacy, Cool Sculpting or any other?

- Do not.